

Steve Jones - Cameo Hills Farm

We will be selling 36 yearlings at Goshen including 12 by New York's number one pacing stallion, Huntsville, four by So Surreal, and one each by American Ideal and Courtly Choice. On the New York trotting side we have yearlings by Chapter Seven, Mets Hall and Devious Man.

We are also selling eight Pennsylvania-breds; three by Bar Hopping as well as yearlings by Greenshoe, Andover Hall, Captain Crunch and Betting Line. Our New Jersey breds are by Hambletonian winning sire Tactical Landing, Six Pack and Lazarus N.

Sixteen of the yearlings are located at Cameo Hills Farm and are available for inspection daily, and videos are available at the Goshen Yearling Sale website. All The remaining yearlings can be inspected at the sale site, starting at 9 a.m. on Sunday, September 10th.

I am probably partial to the Huntsville colts out of Dune In Red (Hip #32, Dune Buggy) & Glowing Report (Hip #41, Smart Guy), and the Huntsville fillies out of Wine Snob (Hip #101, On Cloud Nine) & Limestone Cowgirl (Hip #56 Cervi). We have a very deep and diverse group of horses that I think will be well received by our customers. I believe the location and timing of the sale, following the New York Sire Stakes Finals at Yonkers Raceway is ideal for both buyers and sellers.

Last year's Cameo Hills Goshen consignment produced immediate dividends. Tobern (Crazy Wow-Bertaux) is the top two year trotting colt in New York, has already earned $96,250 in 2023 and has won five out of six starts this year. Another horse that we bred and sold at the Goshen Yearling Sale is the newest track record holder at Batavia Downs, Rec Time (1:52.3, $165,380).
