

Pandy's Meadowlands Selections for Friday, December 8

Note: My odds-line for my top four contenders is based on what I think each horse's chances are to win the race. For instance, if I make a horse 4-1, I think the horse's chances of winning are about 20%, so if the same exact race was run ten times, he'd win it twice. If I make all of the horses about the same odds, that's an indication that I think the race is wide open, or that I can't pinpoint a horse that appears to have a clear edge.

He was short at 2/5 in last at Philadelphia but he did finish second a neck shy against similar in her last start over this track on September 8...NARANJO took some money in his first start for the Meza barn, which was over a sloppy track, but broke early and was far back. He beat a similar field at Lexington this summer and should improve if he stays trotting...KOVU AS was oddly sent off at even money from post 7 off a sick scratch and layoff in last at Yonkers, rallied from off the pace to be a non-threatening second. He raced okay against similar in his last start over this track.
