

EQUINE EMBRYO TRANSFER

SHORT COURSE

When: July 13-14, 2025

20 hours of theoretical and hands-on experience in embryo transfer in mares.

Where:

SIU Equine Teaching and Research Unit (ETRU)

2422 Union Hill Road,
Carbondale, Illinois 62603

Objectives and Topics Covered:

To teach participants about embryo development, management of donor and recipient mares, embryo transfer techniques, and embryo searching and classification.

Target Audience:

Veterinarians. Audit seats available for non-veterinarians. Spaces limited to 10 veterinarians and 3 non-veterinarians. Animal work allowed for veterinarians only.

Registration Fee:

$1,600.00 per person for the entire embryo transfer course.

Registration accepted on a first-come, first-served basis until June 23.

Check (preferably) or cash only; Payment plan available.

Instructors:

Dr. Márcio Nunes, DVM, MS;
Technical Manager at German Standard Group/Minitube Middle East.

Dr. Maria Luiza Munhoz, DVM;
Therigenologist at MK Arabians in the UAE.

Dr. Eduardo Gastal, DVM, MS, PhD;
Professor of Animal and Equine Science at SIU.

Kendall Hyde, MS;
PhD student Animal and Equine Science at SIU.

Sponsors:

Contact:

Kendall Hyde at kendall.hyde@siu.edu or call (618) 319-3903.